Add/Edit predefined macros to the Windows keystroke. MacroKey... The Free Emotet download is for all versions of Windows XP, Vista and Windows 7.Download link can be found on the Free Emotet download page and it is a good idea to install this on your PC just to be on the safe side. This is a very popular download for all Emotet users. After installing Emotet you'll be prompted to restart your PC. This shouldn't take very long. When the prompt comes you'll be able to delete Emotet from your system again, but you might want to keep it for your own protection. This is the first time Emotet has been made available for free. If you have any questions about this post or if you want to report any problem that you experienced when using the free Emotet download then please use this comment box or email me directly at paul.de.bolivie@gmail.com. Last Updated on February 1st, 2018 This was the first time ever Emotet has been made available for free and it has done a great job. We at cybercrime-magazine.com are very proud of this. In all honesty I'm surprised that Emotet hasn't done this sooner, because it is a very nice piece of software with a great reputation in the Emotet scene. Emotet is available in three different versions Emotet Basic, Emotet CE and Emotet CE (GSI). The first version (Emotet Basic) is a very barebones version, but if you need to run it offline and without internet access then this is the version to use. Emotet Basic has been downloaded more than 1.2 million times and thousands of people still use it on a daily basis. The main reason behind this is that Emotet has a lot of nice features. Emotet Basic has a bunch of features but some of the more unique ones are the macro recording, the code editor and the back key, which you can read about in the following Emotet Basic articles: With all those features Emotet Basic has been downloaded more than 1.2 million times. It has also received a lot of positive feedback, which is why it is still in the top 10 downloaded programs. The second version (Emotet CE) is also free and it is the 2edc1e01e8
