Double Dhamaal - 03:47..Q: How to transfer data from one service to another service? I am working on 3G integration using.NET and I came across this service and found that it has API for the same. I wanted to know how I can use it? A: I would go for a standard REST API. I'd make a little service or something like that, and make some REST calls. Then I'd use it to fetch data from another service. Other options: use an HTTP API to get data from the other site Or A SOAP web service with WCF A HTTP/S or REST API with raw web requests (e.g. if your data is in XML) Acet
